Course proposals on the agenda of the meeting of November 10, 2011

Course Proposals

1. Community and Environmental Sociology 499: Capstone Experience
   Type of proposal: New course
   Note: Course number will change before November 10 meeting to comply with the campus policy that course numbers with a middle digit of 9 are reserved for independent study courses.

2. International Studies 501: Study Abroad Topics in Global Security
   Type of proposal: New course

3. International Studies 502: Study Abroad Topics in Politics and Policy in the Global Economy
   Type of proposal: New course

4. International Studies 503: Study Abroad Topics in Culture in the Age of Globalization
   Type of proposal: New course

5. International Studies 504: Study Abroad Topics in Global Environment
   Type of proposal: New course

6. International Studies 520: Study Abroad Topics in International Studies
   Type of proposal: New course

7. International Studies 681: Senior Honors Thesis
   Type of proposal: New course

8. International Studies 682: Senior Honors Thesis
   Type of proposal: New course

9. International Studies 691: Senior Thesis
   Type of proposal: New course

10. International Studies 692: Senior Thesis
    Type of proposal: New course

11. Sociology 125: Contemporary American Society
    Type of proposal: Change in title and description
    Current: Contemporary American Society. The patterns of contemporary North American social life in the U.S. and Canada; the power structure, cultural orientations, social structures, and dynamics of social change.
    Proposed: American Society: How It Really Works. Explanation of US performance in realizing the values of freedom, fairness, and democracy. Topics include markets, capitalism, democracy, capitalist democracy; class, race, and gender inequalities; militarism and US international role; and US electoral politics, media, and social mobilization.

12. Sociology/History 327: Capitalism, Socialism, and Democracy in America Since 1890

Type of proposal: Change in course number

Current: 327

Proposed: 670