
UW-Madison Program Review Summary

Based on deans' office reports on program review as of July 2012.
Programs are listed by school/college.

CHECKBOX: A check in the left "reviewed in past 10 years?" checkbox indicates a program review has been reported for the past 10 years.

Types of Program Review:

10-year reviews - Periodic reviews of each program initiated by school/college deans. By UW-Madison and Regent policy, all programs are to reviewed at least once in a 10 year period.

Joint Reviews - mandatory review of new academic programs by UW System and UW-Madison scheduled approximately five years following implementation of the program. System participation is not required after August 2012.

First Reviews - required reviews of new major/degree and new certificate programs scheduled approximately five years following implementation.

Accreditation - specialized accreditation of programs by external accrediting agencies, may serve as program reviews.

New Programs. New programs will appear as not reviewed in past 10 years; they are scheduled for a first review approximately five years after implementation.

Renamed or Reorganized Programs. For programs that have been renamed or reorganized, the review history of the originating programs is carried with the new programs where possible. For programs that have been renamed or reorganized in the past year those changes may not be reflected in this report.

This summary report was printed from the Program Review Database. Updates and changes to the Program Review Database or requests for more detailed information may be directed to Jocelyn Milner, director of Academic Planning and Analysis.

Sources for the Program Review Database: 1988 to present, "Program Review and Program Planning" in the UW-System yearly report to the Regents, originating from annual Dean's reports on program review. Earlier information from Academic Planning office records, including the "Schedule of Academic Program Review Activities 1973-1983".
