

Goal 1: Increase Enrollments of Students of Color

Key Points

- Since 1998, targeted minority enrollment increased from nearly 6 percent of total enrollment to more than 8 percent.
- The targeted minority portion of graduate school enrollment remains largely unchanged near 6%.
- The targeted minority portion of annual new graduate students has also fluctuated around 6 percent.
- Within the professional programs, Law and Medicine are recovering from declines in targeted minority representation experienced early in this period.
- The targeted minority portion of special (non-degree seeking) students has gradually increased from 4 percent to 6 percent (annual enrollments).
